

► Electronic form for the presentation of complaints before the ILO's Committee on Freedom of Association (CFA)

- Complaints before the CFA can be presented using this electronic form. The form can be downloaded from the ILO website and its use is encouraged, but not mandatory. The information requested in the six sections below is important as it enables the Committee to assess the receivability of the complaint. Further information and details in relation to the submission of complaints may be found in the Special procedures for the examination in the International Labour Organization of complaints alleging violations of freedom of association - Annex I \(para. 31 et seq.\). Additional information on the criteria for filtering complaints can be found in the March 2021 Report of the Committee \(para. 17\).
- The form needs to be signed by an officer of the complainant organization or a person authorized to take such action under the statutes of the organization or by a person holding power of attorney to act on behalf of the organization. Once filled in and duly signed (an electronic signature can be used), please send the form to libsynd@ilo.org. If not possible, please send it to: Freedom of Association Branch, NORMES; Route des Morillons 4, 1211 Geneva, Switzerland.
- For further support, please contact for workers' organizations - ACTRAV (ACTRAV@ilo.org) and for employers' organizations - ACT/EMP (ACTEMP@ilo.org).
